Human Values

Arputha College of Arts and Science invests substantially to inculcate a sense of nation building among the students. The institution imparts values like human respect, acceptance, listening, appreciation, Openness, love towards others to our students. It engages them through activities like seminar about casting votes for a thriving democracy. The college also teaches about self-respect, self – reliance, equitable – prosperity to become a global powerhouse. It explains that the students are future leaders they must contribute their unconditional support to the development of our country and to build a brave nation. Maladies such as corruption and women oppression are aptly sensitized through the media of dramatics and debates. The famous phrase of our former Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru’s “Unity in Diversity” were also communicated to them.

A Project has been taken to educate the farmers of Alangudi to state the impact of chemical fertilizers and the benefit of biofertilizers and how to make a reasonable profit from agriculture production. There are ongoing initiatives for democratizing wealth – creation in the marginalized sections of the society, like the underprivileged children and the disabled, through imparting digital literacy and providing mentorship and avenues for employment.

The national progress can’t be accelerated enough till the women population is enabled to contribute equally, there are multiple forums and seminars for discussing the issues of women safety, gender biases, equal opportunities, and ways to make tangible societal changes towards harnessing women power. The institution arranged workshop on drug addiction to students and stated how a family is being affected by these activities. Students are also taught to avoid the cowardness of attempting suicide, eloping and the impact of student’s early marriage and soon.
